

Conjunction

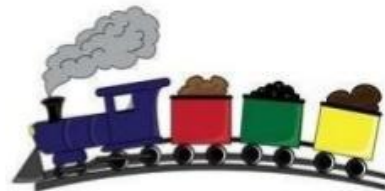

A conjunction is a word that is used to join words, groups of words and sentences.

KINDS OF CONJECTION

- COORDINATING CONJECTION
- SUBORDINATING CONJECTION
- CORRELATIVE CONJECTION

and so but

Conjunctions

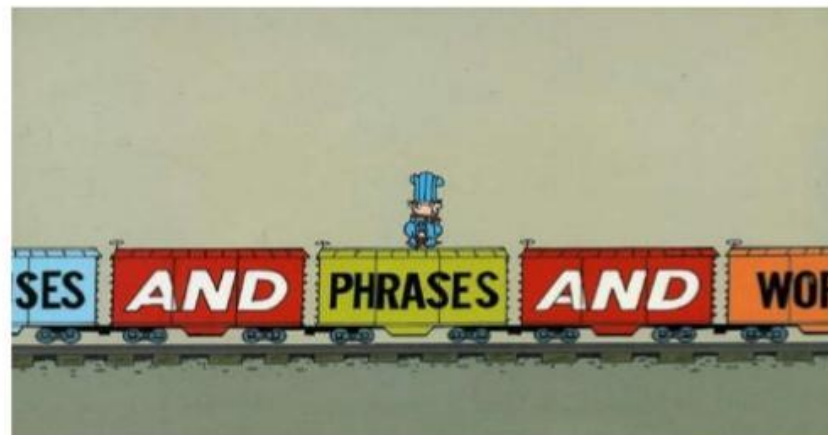

Acclaim Images.com

Beth Neitz
ESL 502

What is a conjunction?

- Joins or hooks together groups of words and sentences

How do I say conjunction?

Let's sound out the word together in parts:

con- junc- tion
↑ ↑ ↑

Now let's say the whole word together

conjunction

and

Joseph ate a hot dog.

Joseph ate french fries.

Joseph ate a hot dog and french fries.

and joined the similar ideas together

and

Sara went to the park.

Sara met her friend Michelle.

Sara went to the park and met her friend Michelle.

Practice and

He is hungry.

He is tired.

He is hungry _____ tired.

SO

It was raining.

We brought an umbrella.

It was raining, so we brought an umbrella.

so shows that the second idea is the result of the first

so

He likes baseball.

He joined the team.

He likes baseball, so he joined the team.

Practice so

They like swimming in the ocean.

They went to the beach.

They like swimming in the ocean, _____
they went to the beach.

but

He wanted to buy a game.

He didn't have any money.

He wanted to buy a game, but he didn't have any money.

but joins two opposite ideas together

but

He wanted to go to school.

He was sick.

He wanted to go to school, but he was sick.

Practice but

She wants to do her homework.

She forgot what to do.

She wants to do her homework, _____
she forgot what to do.

